

THE SUN-DEMOCRAT.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

All contracts and bills for advertising payable monthly.
Advertising rates given upon application.
Business locals 10 cents per line for first insertion, and 5 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

THE SUN-DEMOCRAT is pleased to contribute to public matters, but all notices of festivals, fairs, meetings of societies, support, entertainments and mention of marriages, births and deaths beyond the regular announcement, will be charged for at regular rates.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1897.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Andy Kline has erected a porch in front of his liquor store.

United States District Attorney Ellinwood left Sunday for Los Angeles.

For first-class watch work go to J. P. Arnold's at Bagnall's shoe store.

Take your watch and jewelry repairs to J. A. Maurer at the postoffice.

E. S. Gurney is having his new residence in the west part of town painted.

A new lot of jewelry just received at J. A. Maurer's. Postoffice jewelry store.

Good cheap shoes at M. J. Bagnall's. Try the $2.50 and $3.00 shoes. Repairing.

W. H. Pearce left to-day for his old home, Flint, Mich., for a visit of several weeks.

For freshest cuts in beef, mutton, veal and pork, go to Mohlenpach & Muderbach.

E. J. F. Horner of Prescott was in the city several days last week, guest of Father Dilly.

County Treasurer D. M. Francis left Saturday for a few weeks' visit in Southern California.

C. S. Denton has accepted a position as salesman in the Flagstaff Commercial Company's store.

Commodore Owens of Holbrook passed through on No. 2 Tuesday enroute from California.

Rev. Father T. M. Connolly of Winslow has been sojourning in the Sky-light city the past week.

Attorney T. W. Johnson of Prescott was here Monday and Tuesday attending to court business.

William Carroll is putting on the finishing touches to his hotel building by having the same painted.

Attorney T. G. Norris came in Tuesday from Prescott to attend District court. He returned yesterday.

Mrs. B. C. Olney and Miss Lulu Davis returned Sunday from a trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

W. S. Hancock, master mechanic of the Needles shops, passed through on No. 1 Friday enroute home from Albuquerque.

Lynian H. Telfree, proprietor of the New Bank Hotel, left this morning for Saugus, Cal., to look after his hotel interests there.

Miss Maud Barburnugh, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past week, left for her Prescott home yesterday.

G. W. Purcell, representing the Los Angeles Times, arrived Saturday and is investigating the Grand Canyon mining district.

D. W. Thomas, the veteran photographic supply man, is back from a trip overland to Texas and through Southern Arizona.

Chas. McLean and Stanley Sykes left Tuesday for Oak Creek on a hunting and fishing trip. They will be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Herman Berger of Gallup visited with the family of her brother Jules Aubineau this week, returning to Gallup Thursday.

Mohlenpach & Muderbach have the cleanest, nicest, most convenient meat market in town. Their meats are all fresh and of the finest.

Frank Hart and family of Winslow, who have been visiting here the past week, and W. H. Campbell and wife left Monday for a camping trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

Professor J. Curtis Watson has returned from Hawaii and passed through here Friday for Chicago and other points in the East. He will return to Arizona in a few weeks.

Within the last few days bear has frequently been seen up in the mountains and the hunters are preparing to go after some of them.

The reports of the investigating committees of the grand jury and the grand jury report proper will be published in these columns next week.

The Epworth League are arranging a lecture on Phrenology on Thursday evening, Aug. 26. What is that? Come out and hear about it.

The board of school trustees of this district met Saturday, and fixed the 30th of this month for the beginning of the coming term of school.

Mat Blakely has sold his residence in the northeast part of town to M. A. Black, and the latter has removed same to the west part of town on Aspen avenue.

Mr. Jones, the waterworks contractor, has not been heard from up to going to press and the City Council is seriously thinking of calling the deal off with him.

The public night at Lowell Observatory Saturday was taken advantage of by a larger crowd than had ever before climbed the hill to get a view of the starry universe.

Mr. Ralph H. Melzer son of William Melzer, is spending a recreation of two weeks enjoying the climate of Flagstaff and the wonders of the Grand Canyon.—Republican.

J. W. Thurber informs us that light ning at Seligman on Saturday struck and killed two mules in his camp at that place. It also knocked five men down, but none of them were injured.

Rev. G. F. Bovard, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal churches of Arizona, arrived in Flagstaff to-day to hold the Quarterly Conference for the Methodist church this evening at the church.

W. H. Powers and wife, and J. W. Power, and Miss Edith Brooks, Miss Ida Warren and Miss Addine Bury of Phoenix composed a party of sightseers who left for the Grand Canyon of the Colorado Tuesday.

Phrenology assists the teacher to adapt herself and her methods to the pupils' capabilities and needs. This will be explained in the Epworth League's lecture on Phrenology Thursday evening, Aug. 26.

G. K. Woods, general manager of the Grand Canyon Stage Line, on Sunday will convey a party of eight or ten from Flagstaff, and several from Prescott to the Moqui village to witness the snake dance on the 20th.

The order of Red Men have arranged for a meeting this evening at the opera house and will endeavor to establish a lodge in Flagstaff. B. M. Legg, district organizer, will be on hand. Everybody is invited to attend.

A. L. Bradbury, wife and two children, of Chien, Cal., arrived Saturday and will make Flagstaff their future home. Mr. Bradbury is an old schoolmate of H. C. Lockett, and contemplates engaging in the cattle business here.

Dr. Charles Eulmar and wife of Atlantic City, N. J., arrived Sunday and are stopping at the Grand Canyon Hotel. Dr. Eulmar is affected with lung trouble and will remain here for the benefit of his health until cool weather sets in.

Deputy Sheriff Martin Bugglen and W. H. Miller on Sunday conveyed Tom Sims, sentenced to eighteen months for robbery, and two Mexicans who robbed Jeweler Maurer of three valuable rings, sentenced for four years, to the Yuma penitentiary.

Awarded
Highest Honors—World's Fair,
Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair.

DR.
PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER

A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder.
40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

George Bucklar is among the prosperous farmers of this section. He had fresh potatoes of his own raising on his table the 22nd of last month, and he informs us that he has wheat five feet high now growing on his ranch north of town.

The famous Oak Creek Canyon is infested with immense cinnamon bear and deer. Several hunting parties have been organized here the past few weeks and venison and bear meat will soon be as common to the patrons of the meat markets here as beefsteak.

Not a week or scarcely a day goes by without some pleasure seeker visiting the Grand Canyon. This dreamland wonder is becoming more widely known year by year, and the increase of visitors this year is largely in excess of that of any previous one.

Miss May Brannen, who has been visiting with the family of Dr. D. J. Brannen for the past few weeks, left Monday for her old home in Illinois. Miss Brannen during her brief stay here has made many warm friends, who greatly regret her departure.

Preaching services at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. Morning discourse, "Jesus in the House," evening discourse, "Self Hurt of Sin." All are cordially invited to attend these services.

C. P. WILSON, Pastor.

Humors in the blood, boils, pimples, scrofula sores, are promptly eradicated by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier, nerve tonic and health builder.

Hood's pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, biliousness. 25c.

A trainload of empty day coaches and Pullmans passed through here Tuesday as second section of No. 1, enroute to the Coast to pick up the balance of the Eastern Christian Endeavorers. No. 2 on Tuesday consisted of four sections, packed solid with Endeavorers.

J. A. Lamport returned from Seligman Saturday, where he has been for the past three weeks estimating the amount of drainage of the Santa Fe Pacific company's reservoir at that place. He will do like work for the company on their reservoirs at Ash Fork and Walnut.

The services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning will be as follows: Morning, the subject of the sermon will be "The Grateful People," to be followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Evening, "The Joy of Trust."

H. P. CORNER, Pastor.

The teachings of phrenology will help parents in teaching their children—will enable them to understand their dispositions, and what callings they are best adapted for, so that they may mould them for their places in life. Attend the lecture by the Epworth League Thursday eve., Aug. 26.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Neis of Brooklyn, N. Y. arrived Monday on a sight-seeing tour. They have visited the Lee Canyon, Cliff Dwellings, Frisco Peaks, and are now viewing that climax of all wonders, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. On their return from the Canyon they will visit the Moqui Village and witness the snake dance.

The injured railroad men, Robert Eastman, brakeman, and Hugh O'Neill, fireman, who were hurt in a wreck at Flagstaff, were brought to the hospital last night. They are accompanied by their wives, and will receive the best of care. It is thought that both of the injured men will recover in a few weeks.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Professors Creager and Brown, whose families are spending the summer at Flagstaff, left last night for the Sky-light town. They were there earlier in the season, but returned coincidentally with the arrival of Governor McCord to participate in the contest over the appointment of a Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction.—Republican.

The following members of the Flagstaff Baseball Club went to Winslow Sunday and played the local club there: Simington, c; Rand, p; Dugan, 1b; Sliker, 2b; Jackson, ss; Jasper, 3b; Robinson, rf; Flynn, cf; Hopkins, lf. The game is said to have been an interesting one from the beginning of the first inning until the ninth, the score being 14 to 9 in favor of the

IF YOU WANT TO SEE...

VERY LATEST, UP-TO-DATE STYLES

---IN---

MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR

...Of All Kinds Drop in to the...

FLAGSTAFF CASH STORE

WE KEEP IN STOCK ONLY THE BEST OF EVERYTHING, AND ALL OUR GOODS ARE SOLD WITH A FULL GUARANTEE TO GIVE ENTIRE SATISFACTION OR MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

IN HATS See the Fall styles in New Stetson's, Derbys and the new L. A. W. shape.

IN SHOES Don't overlook our Green, Ox Blood, Chocolate and Black Box Calf.

CLOTHING • UNDERWEAR • HOSIERY
NECKWEAR

Levi Strauss & Co.'s Overalls, 60 Cents Per Pair.

Winslow Club. In the latter part of the game Catcher Simington was injured and had to retire; Hopkins, left fielder, took his place and Hurd played left field. The Flagstaff boys all speak highly of the treatment accorded them by the Winslow club; which paid their transportation and hotel bills and entertained them royally.

The Prescott papers utilize about one-third of their space in stirring Phoenix, while the Flagstaff paper extends hearty greetings to the citizens of the Salt River valley to come and spend the summer months in that charming resort. It looks to an outsider as though Flagstaff knows a good thing when she sees it. The course of the Prescott papers does not injure Phoenix, and if it helps Prescott, why continue it, by all means.—Phoenix Gazette.

The M. E. Sunday school gave a picnic Wednesday at William Gibson's ranch, two and one-half miles east of town. A large number of children and older ones were in attendance, and all had a jolly good time. Refreshments were prepared, and swinging, base and foot ball constituted the amusements of the day. Such occasions are always fraught with interest to the children. J. W. Thurber, the liveryman deserves the praise of the entire Sunday school for free transportation, as he took them out and back without charge.

Aldace F. Walker and family arrived in a special car Saturday. With Mr. Walker were a party of young Chicagoans, who had come out here to see the Moqui snake dance. Tuesday afternoon Hon. D. M. Riordan and his two daughters, Misses Helen and Marie, and Mr. Walker's two sons, accompanied by the Chicago party, left for the Moqui villages. They will travel via the north end of the mountain to the Grand Canyon and will probably visit Cataract Creek. They will not return until about September. Mr. Walker in his special car continued on to California last evening.

Judge Sloan after an eight days' term of court adjourned the same yesterday till the first Monday in December. There was but little civil business transacted. The case of George Margareitch against Stephen Partymen and wife was continued till the adjourned term. The case of C. H. McClure and C. A. Bush against Austin Moore was submitted to the court and taken under advisement. The following prisoners were convicted and sentenced: Charles Hackett, assault with intent to kill, sentenced for five years; Thomas Sims, embezzlement; eighteen months; Anastacio Morales, burglary, three years; Romaldo Flores and Anastacio Melendez, burglary, four years each; Jesse Wright and Harry Porter, grand larceny, eighteen months, and J. W. Jackson, aggravated assault, $150 or 150 days in the county jail.

PURE DRUGS

...AT...

W. R. EDWARDS' PHARMACY

East Side San Francisco St., FLAGSTAFF

PATEE BICYCLES

Only $100 Wheel in Territory for $60
ABSOLUTELY DUST PROOF. ADJUSTABLE HANDLE-BARS. WITH PHOENIA SINGLE-TUBE TIRES.

J. D. RAUDEBAUGH, AGENT, FLAGSTAFF

J. G. MILLIGAN

Contractor AND Builder

Manufacturer of Brick and Lime.

ALSO JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,
Flagstaff Precinct.

Flagstaff Undertaking Parlor

EDGAR WHIPPLE, Manager.

A FULL LINE OF FINE MAHOGANY AND METALLIC COFFINS AND BURIAL ROBES.

EMBALMING A SPECIALTY.
Everything Up to Date.

ASBESTOS COFFINS that afford Protection in ANY climate.

COPP'S U. S. SALARY LIST
CIVIL SERVICE FILES

SEE SPECIAL EXAMINATION COMPANIES, even the Civil, Army, Navy and Diplomatic Pay Tables, Table about Post, Departmental, Customs, Indian and other public employments. 2000 50 CENTS. Price 50c. For sale at the office of this paper.

Wanted—An Idea
If you have an idea for a new business, or a new product, or a new method of doing business, we want to hear of it. Write to us at once.